I talked by telephone to Mr. Robert G. Miner, Greek Desk, State Department, on 26 December 1947 with reference to the attached message. Mr. Miner states that he will draft a message in reply stating that these broadcasts are monitored without difficulty by the [REDACTED] and that monitored broadcasts can be made available to the ambassador in London for transmission to Mr. Rankin.

Mr. Miner states that he will call me again when his message is ready to be transmitted.
